I have enjoyed working with individuals, families, groups, Governmental Agencies and Non-profit Organizations over fifty years, specializing in the upward mobility of those hit by crisis situations via crisis interventions.

EXPERIENCE:

1960's, Co-founder, Mpingo Kawaita Tafa, Inc, was my first 5013c organization. It was designed to address the needs of the Black Community, and unity, self-determination and collective work responsibility were some of its founding principles.

1980 - 1992 Founder, Crisis Caboose Center, Pomona and Riverside, CA. Supervised and provided a wide variety of programs helping homeless individuals and families get off the streets and into shelters and into permanent housing. I interacted with homelessness in the field and in the courts by answering unlawful detainers, job developing, rental assistance programs, homeless shelter programs and Legal Aid.

1992 - Inactive Founder of Up From Dependency, Inc., Phoenix, Arizona and Palm Springs, California - Homeless Prevention.

2008 - Present Co-Founder West Coast Columbus, OH Connection, Inc., Los Angeles and Cathedral City, California - Senior Citizens Advocacy, Crisis Intervention, Legal Aid, Homeless Shelters, Desert Hot Springs, California, Food Distribution, Information Specialist, Entertainment, Yana Program (You Are Not Alone) and worked closely with Government Agencies.
